

Jurisdictions that are expanding JDAI to the Deep End begin with a comprehensive system assessment that has quantitative and qualitative components. AECF will work collaboratively with site personnel to complete the assessment.

Quantitative Analysis

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Compilation of Dispositional Dataset</li> <li>● Analysis</li> <li>● Findings</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Hands-on Technical Assistance at Pre-launch Data Workshop</li> <li>● Using Data to Guide Deep End Juvenile Justice Reform (guidebook)</li> <li>● As needed, AECF can provide additional data support with any aspect of this process</li> </ul> |
|---|---|

Qualitative Analysis

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Fact-Finding Process - Questions and Document Collection</li> <li>● Probation Survey – Anonymous survey circulated by Coordinator, completed by all probation staff, supervisors, administration</li> <li>● Site Visit (after preliminary dispositional data set has been submitted) -             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Coordinator handles logistics &amp; scheduling</li> <li>○ Key stakeholders participate in a half-day system-mapping conversation</li> <li>○ Stakeholders may also be asked to talk one-on-one w/the Assessment Team</li> <li>○ POs responsible for dispositional recommendations and/or supervision will be asked to participate in a 2-hour focus group with the Assessment Team</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Focus Groups with Youth &amp; Families - Community-based partners will facilitate focus groups</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Fact-Finding Process: Deep End Team Leaders will assist sites with Fact-Finding Process</li> <li>● Probation Survey – Independent researchers will compile results</li> <li>● Site Visit - AECF will convene Assessment Team to:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Facilitate system-mapping discussion</li> <li>○ Interview stakeholders</li> <li>○ Conduct focus group with POs</li> <li>○ Observe courtroom hearings</li> </ul> </li> <li>● Focus Groups with Youth &amp; Families: AECF will provide guidelines and offer webinars to build organizations' capacity to conduct focus groups</li> <li>● As needed, Deep End Team Leaders, AECF staff, and other grantees can help identify community-based organizations to partner with for the youth/family focus groups</li> </ul> |
|--|---|

- AECF staff and consultants will work with JDAI/Deep End sites to synthesize information gathered, identify key themes, and develop an informative and engaging report to summarize assessment findings
- AECF staff will be available to jointly present the results of the assessment results to one or more stakeholder groups